A variety in contemporary art

There are two exhibitions on in the city showcasing works with a variety in theme and colour, writes Nalini S Malaviya

Artist Shakeel Momin from Mumbai is exhibiting his recent watercolours. The series is based on music where he has depicted musicians playing different instruments singly and in groups. His works are colourful, pleasant and cheerful with an emphasis on making them appear visually appealing. The figures are long limbed and delicately formed, but the lack of facial features appears slightly discordant. This is his first show in Bangalore. There are 22 works that are 2x2 feet in size and priced at Rs 18,000 each.

The exhibition is on till March 31, between 10 am and 7 pm on all days, at Gallery G, Maini Sadan, 38 Lavelle Road, 7th Cross, Bangalore 1. Phone: 22219275.

Vinyasa premier art gallery from Chennai is back in Bangalore with a show featuring works by a group of six artists - Anand Panchal, V K Ashok, Pushpa Devi, Rajkumar Panwar, Ratnakar Ojha and Surendra Jagtap. Pushpa and Rajkumar exhibit sculptures in bronze, and ceramic with bronze, respectively. The other four artists present acrylics on canvas. All the artists' works are figurative in nature with bright colours. Influences from mythology and folk traditions are evident, yet the works differ greatly from one another, in all it offers a good variety of contemporary art from these artists.

The exhibition is on till March 30, between 10 am and 7 pm on all days, at Abstract Art Gallery, 8 Cunningham Road, Bangalore 52. Phone: 51235444, 51235440.
