

TAKE YOUR PICK NEXT WEEK

ART

Here's an exhibition of watercolours that's cost effective and cheerful. That's C&C, a showcase of affordable art, by Shakeel Momin. All art works are priced at Rs 18,000. March 25 to 31. gallery g, 38, Maini Sadan, 7th Cross, Lavelle Road.

- If you want to make art a part of your daily life, then check out artist Chippy Ganjee's exhibition of usable art in the form of hand-painted wooden coasters. March 25-31. Native Place, 89, 16th A Main Road, 4th B Blk, Koramangala. 11 am-8 pm.

- There are more visual treats in store for art lovers. Vinnyasa Premier Art Gallery is presenting an exhibition of paintings by Anand Panchal, V K Ashok, Pushpa Devi, Rajkumar Panwar, Ratnakar Ojha and Surendra Jagtap. March 24 to 30. Abstract Art Gallery, 8, Cunningham Road (Behind Svisti). 11 am to 7 pm.

DANCE

It's a reminiscence narrative from the Mahabhara-ta — one that delves into the inner world of Kunthi, and asks questions that resonate through the ages. That's Vanaparastham, a dance presentation by Bangalore-based dancer and theatre person Anitha Santhanam. March 26. Christ College Auditorium. 7 pm.

THEATRE

It blurs the boundaries of theatre and film, reality and illusion to show how life and love is ultimately Scripted. That's Misfit's latest production — Scripted: Tira, Pinjra. Alliance Francaise, Vasanth Nagar. March 25. 3 pm and 7 pm. Tickets are available at Cafe Paradis (Alliance) and Turnbridge.